Napa Valley with Altitude

A SPECIAL TASTING OF OVER 100 WINES FROM MOUNT VEEDER, SPRING MOUNTAIN & DIAMOND MOUNTAIN

*T*he Mayacamas Mountain range rises high above the Napa Valley along its western side. The range includes three California AVAs—Mount Veeder, Spring Mountain and Diamond Mountain.

It is comprised of individuals, more often than not, of couples, of families, of stubborn, independent people with passion, dreams and a whole lot of energy.

These mountain appellations are defined by vineyards that range from small to smaller, often hand-tilled on terraces and sloping meadows, and wineries hidden from view among dark forests and steep winding roads.

Over the years, despite the limited space and remoteness, the appellations have produced an abundance of wines acclaimed worldwide for their unmistakably intense flavors and delicate, balanced tannins that are now the signature of Mayacamas Mountain wines.
